

1 to recommend and to put into effect additional courts.

2 I think throughout the entire recommendation of 3 the majority report the strengthening of the judiciary has 4 taken effect in all of its aspects, with respect to ap-
5 pointment, removal, to the conduct in office, but I do
6 think that in this regard that we ought not to take away
7 from the Legislative Branch the ability to adjust itself
8 to conditions that may occur sometime in the future, which 9 the powers of the judiciary in establishing a division
10 within a court, a tier of court would not adjust itself
11 to, so therefore I would urge that in this respect and on 12 this amendment alone that we give back to the legislature
13 the power to adjust itself to situations that might occur
14 sometime in the future.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Mudd.

16 DELEGATE MUDD: Mr. Chairman, I would like to 17 yield three minutes to Delegate Henderson to speak in 18 opposition to the amendment.

19 DELEGATE HENDERSON: Mr. Chairman, fellow dele-
20 gates, as Chairman Mudd has pointed out, it seems to me
21 that this proposal, this amendment, would cut the heart
